

Musical Benefit Celebrates Haiti Mission

Sally Drennan Mossing, pianist, is the Director of Music and Organist at Sylvania United Church of Christ and Holy Trinity Catholic Church. She received her Bachelor of Music degree from Bowling Green State University. Carolyn Loebig, flutist, studied flute at the University of Akron. She received her Bachelor's degree in Music Education from the University of Akron and a Master's degree in Music Education from the University of Toledo. Carolyn is the Assistant Band Director for grades 6-12, at Evergreen Local Schools.

Rini Ng began playing the cello at nine years of age and later took part in the University of Illinois Student Orchestra. She enjoys playing in the community for weddings and church services. Rini teaches science and math at Timberstone Junior High School in Sylvania, Ohio.

Musical Benefit Celebrates Haiti Mission, continued

Haitian Folkloric Dancers, Kerlyne & Kawine Clermont (standing) and Ashley Pierre-Louis.

Haitian Fair Trade items were on sale from All Good Things. Pictured above are metal sculptures and wood art.

The Haiti Benefit Concert Planning Committee, left to right, Sister Aloise Paluszak, Sister Joy Barker, Sally Drennan, Katie Large and Sister Ann Carmen Barone.